GERMANS PLAN TO FLY TO NEW YORK WEDNESDAY

VILLAGE OPENS ITS WHITE WAY; DAVEY SPEAKER

Banquet, Parade, Speaking Comprise Ceremonies at Columbiana

MAYOR TURNS ON STREET LIGHTS

Meeting at School House Addressed by Kent Congressman

Columbiana opened its "white way" Monday night with ceremonies that included a banquet, parade and meeting in the high school auditorium addressed by Congressman Martin L. Davey of Kent.

The street lighting system in the business district is similar to that being installed in Salem's business section and the brilliance of the illumination elicited favorable comments from the large crowd that gathered for the official opening.

Banquet at Church
More than 100 were served at a banquet at 7 p. m. in the basement of the Methodist church. Selections by the Columbiana High school orchestra and a quartet of young men were greatly appreciated as the women of the church served the dinner and later the entire group joined in singing several songs.

John Beswick, president of the Business Men's Association, presided over a brief program, which included brief addresses by Congressman Davey, Ira F. Mellinger of Leetonia, Sam W. Crawford of East Liverpool and Harry A. Gager of Salem. While these talks were chiefly of a humorous nature, each speaker complimented the citizens of Columbiana for their spirit of co-operation and progressiveness in providing modern lighting facilities for their streets.

Mayor Snyder turned a switch in the church basement which officially opened the "white way" and the group marched from the church where other citizens joined in a parade through the business district, headed by the Lisbon band. This parade ended at the high school auditorium and there several hundred people listened to an interesting address by Congressman Davey.

Davey's Address
Davey declared Columbiana has led the way for other communities of its size in street lighting and from this thought he led his audience into a discussion of the light of modern civilization, with its educational and spiritual progress. He referred especially to present-day problems in America, referring to the assimilation of immigrants, and declared he favored a law which would send the professional law-breaking alien back to his native country. He spoke at length on professional crime, which he said is committed by a small minority of our population, stressing the conviction that the great majority of citizens believe in law-enforcement and live peaceful, law-abiding lives.

In the group which attended the ceremonies at Columbiana were several city officials and others from Salem.

COURT SUSPENDS MENS' SENTENCE

Pair Indicted For Burglary Given Lecture By Judge Lones

When officers at Leetonia took a car from Roy Floding, who was driving it while intoxicated, and placed it in a garage, John R. Donnelly, the father of six children, and whose home is now quarantined with scarlet fever, declared that "they would go get it."

The two men went to the W. A. Rankin garage, broke the lock, but the Floding car was not there. Both men are indicted by the April grand jury for burglary.

Monday afternoon the two men went before Judge W. F. Lones of Lisbon, and entered a plea of guilty. The court suspended sentence for 60 days.

The court told the young men that their drinking was no excuse for committing a crime. At the end of 60 days they are to again report to the court, and unless they commit some act in the meantime, the court announced that sentence would again be deferred for ten months.

Donnelly, however, was ordered to support his family.

Grover Miller of Lisbon, indicted for assault and battery, entered a plea of guilty. He was fined $50 and costs.

The court, however, suspended $25 of the fine, and gave the defendant 30 days to pay the remainder.

Miller was indicted for assaulting Norman Kessler.

Jockey Injured

Haure De Grace, Md., April 17.—Jockey O. Bourassa, was fatally injured here today when exercising the Seagram stable's thoroughbred, Julia H. The youngster was removed to a local hospital where he died.

Peggy At It Again; He's American

Paris, April 17.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce is in the midst of a new romance. She revealed today that she is engaged to marry "a well known American."

"But I will not tell his name," said Peggy.

At the same time Miss Joyce denied a rumor that she might become the bride of Count de Janze, former husband of Alice Silverthorne, of Chicago.

Miss Joyce is no stranger to the marriage altar, having had four husbands. Her last was Count Morner.

CANADA REJECTS GREAT LAKES TO SEA WATERWAY

Dominion Government Is Unable to Agree On Treaty With U. S.

CORRESPONDENCE IS MADE PUBLIC

Nothing More Can Be Done Until After Canada Elections

Washington, April 17.—The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway is again on the shelf.

Canada has rejected the proposal of the United States for an immediate beginning on a treaty which would set dredges and concrete mixers to work.

Secretary of State Kellogg suggested immediate inauguration of treaty negotiations in April, a year ago. The voluminous correspondence since exchanged was made public today.

It is understood here that nothing more can be done until after the next Canadian national elections, if then. These are not expected until 1930 or 1931.

Power Rights Obstacle
Water power rights are the principal obstacle. Canada will not permit more power to be developed from wholly Canadian rights than can be absorbed by the Canadian market. She will not consider exporting her surplus to the United States. Potential hydro-electric energy involved in the project is estimated at 5,000,000 horsepower, half of which belongs to Canada.

The major differences between the two governments centers on the remaining 2,250,000 potential horsepower.

A special assembly was held at Salem High school this morning when Miss Sylvia Marburger of the faculty at Mt. Union college, and Jacob Hines, senior on the college, entertained with a delightful musical program.

Mr. Hines has a rich baritone voice with fine enunciation. The students voiced their approval with repeated applause. The program was as follows:

"Liebesfreud" (Kreisler); "Waltz G Flat" (Chopin); "Waltz E Minor" (Chopin) by Miss Marburger.

"Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride"; "Where'er Ye Walk" (Handel); "Just Been Working" (Connors) by Mr. Hines.

Consolidation Held Remedy For Rural Church

Columbus, April 17.—Consolidation of churches and abandonment of denominational lines was the drastic remedy for the critical situation faced by the rural church, offered today by ministers attending the state "Comity Conference" which opened here yesterday under the auspices of the Ohio Council of Churches.

The successes of approximately 50 of these consolidated churches in Ohio, in which people of various denominations, worship in a single United congregation, were related by pastors in attendance.

Rev. David B. Pearson of the Federated church at Aurora, reported that his congregation has a membership of 300 and received 25 new memberships, Easter Sunday.

Business Houses' Building Program Is Well Under Way

Raymond Parshall Is Named Member Of Phi Beta Kappa

Contribution To The Business Future of City Is Big

IMPROVEMENTS TOTAL $300,000

Many Changes Being Made in Downtown Home Areas

New buildings and improvements which will aggregate above $300,000, completed, under way, or planned by more than a score of Salem merchants and other business houses, give evidence of the confidence and interest they have in Salem's business future.

These firms have contributed to this business future by constructing new buildings or additions, rebuilding their present establishments, remodeling of buildings, changes in location for greater space, and establishment of new businesses.

Most of these improvements have been confined to what is known as the business district, but others are in the residential sections of the city.

The largest new building being completed is that of the Home Savings and Loan Co., a combination bank and office building two stories high, which will cost approximately $125,000 when completed.

Rush Inside Work
Work is now being rushed on the interior, practically all of the main part of the exterior being finished. With an Indiana limestone front and a special entrance and lobby, this building will be one of the finest on Main st. The opening will be held some time next month, according to tentative plans.

The Reichart Furniture Co., which purchased the business and accounts of the former National Furniture Co., is now established in its new home at 30-32 Main st. At considerable expense the company completely rebuilt the former Speier block inside, and put a new front on it. The store is one of the largest furniture and home furnishings institutions in this part of Ohio.

The J. C. Penney Co., now located in the Metzger hotel building, will shortly move into its new home in the former Hemmett location at South Lundy and Main. Workmen have been busy for weeks making extensive alterations to the building, and a complete new front also will be a feature. This firm, starting in a fairly small room was forced by rapid increase of business to find larger quarters.

Bunn's Will Move
The Bunn shoe store will take over the present Penney Co. location as soon as the latter firm moves. The shoe store finds its present small quarters cramped for the steady increasing business. Improvements are being planned for (Continued on Page Four)

Leetonia Girl, Salem Boy Compete To See Who Will Go to Canton

OHIO FINALS WILL BE HELD APRIL 27

Three Judges Named For Contest; Simpson Is To Preside

Two students, Miss Lena Jane Beilhart, Freshman in Leetonia High school, and Charles Wilhelm, senior in Salem High school, will compete in the Salem district finals of the international oratorical contest at 11:15 a. m. Friday in Salem High school auditorium.

The winner of the district contest will go to Canton April 27 to compete with other district winners in the state contest which will decide who is to represent Ohio in the zone competition in Troy, N. Y.

Judges of the contest Friday will be three outstanding men in the vicinity. They are: L. F. Mellinger, of Leetonia; J. L. Gray, of Salem, assistant county schools superintendent, and L. D. Kepner, superintendent of the Lisbon public schools.

Principal W. Fletcher Simpson, of Salem High school, will preside. The public is invited to attend the contest which will be held at the assembly hall.

Miss Beilhart, who won first in the Leetonia elimination contest over students in classes above her, is the youngest daughter of A. J. Beilhart, and with her father, makes her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnson, 329 Columbus st., Leetonia.

During her school work in the grades, and in this her first year in Leetonia High school, Miss Beilhart has been an "A" student, and her grades have never been below 90 per cent. She has never had to take an examination because of these high grades.

The international oratorical contest is the first in which she has participated.

Charles Wilhelm, one of Salem High school's best students, is already an orator of note. He captained one of the two debating teams this year, and has appeared in a number of plays.

FLOOD BILL IS PORK-COOLIDGE

Washington, April 17.—President Coolidge today criticized the Jones-Reid flood control bill, passed by the senate, as pork barrel legislation.

He declared no measure of such an extortionate nature ever before had been presented to congress. He said the bill would cost the government at least $1,500,000,000, as opposed to the $300,000,000 appropriation in the army engineers' plan.

Colorado Refuses To Give To Hoover Delegates' Support

Republicans Meet In Eight Weeks To Nominate

LOWDEN, HOOVER IN CLOSE RACE

Colorado Turns Down Work's Plea For Secretary

Washington, April 17.—Eight weeks from today the Republican National convention meets in Kansas City to select its presidential candidate.

The field heads into the highly important six weeks of April and May, filled with primaries and state conventions, with the situation only slightly beginning to clarify.

Considerably less than half of the delegates have been chosen, either by primary, state convention, or action by state committees, and those that have been chosen are about equally divided between the leaders—Herbert Hoover and Frank O. Lowden.

Only six of the 17 primary states have gone to the polls, Illinois, Michigan, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Dakota and Wisconsin.

These states have between them 164 delegates. Lowden is estimated to have won 48 in Illinois, the other 13 being doubtful; 13 in North Dakota and seven in Wisconsin, a total of 68.

Little Light on Outcome
Hoover has picked up 33 in Michigan, 12 in New Hampshire and four in Wisconsin, a total of 49.

Senator George W. Norris (R), of Nebraska, has received the 19 from his native state, and 15 in Wisconsin, making 34.

The primaries to date admittedly have thrown but little light on the situation as a whole.

Colorado acted yesterday, but refused to instruct its 15 delegates for Hoover, notwithstanding that Hoover's managers claim the state for him, and notwithstanding, too, that Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work, a native Coloradoan, is one of the Hoover managers.

Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Ohio, three of the largest units in the convention, combining 169 delegates.

CIOTT IS FINED $200 FOR BOOZE

Matta Ordered to Pay An Old Fine or Leave This City

Bert Ciott, Columbia st., alleged violator of the 18th amendment, caught in the raids conducted by police Saturday night, appeared in Mayor Phil Hiddelson's court Monday afternoon and pled guilty to possession of intoxicating liquors. He was fined $200 and costs, which he is to pay tonight.

Roger Matta, Columbia st., nabbed the same night, pled guilty to the same charge, and was given the alternative of paying an old fine or getting out of the city. The fine for his latest offense was suspended, pending the payment of his old debt to the city.

The fine of Mrs. Matta, arrested for interfering with an officer, was also suspended, Mayor Hiddelson ordering her to pay for the purchase of a new coat for Patrolman William Reardon, whom she attacked when the raid was made.

The trial of Phil Eckart, charged with gambling and possession of intoxicating liquor, and the alleged operator of the "Owl Club," which was raided Saturday night, was continued until 8 p. m. today.

Ask Special Diamond Unit To Stop Smuggling

Washington, April 17.—Steps to break up international smuggling rings, which are shipping from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000 worth of diamonds into United States annually without payment of duty were taken today by the Customs Bureau.

If a request for $100,000 appropriation is approved by congress the bureau will have a special diamond unit in action by midsummer, operating on both sides of the Atlantic, in an effort to reduce the government's loss of 20 per cent duty on the value of smuggled cut stones.

Carriers—the men and women who actually bring the diamonds from Amsterdam and Antwerp markets to the United States—are reaping a profit estimated at close to $4,000,000 annually.

The smugglers guarantee delivery to the United States for about 10 per cent of the customs duty saved if the diamonds are smuggled in. The remaining 10 per cent is divided between the foreign merchant and the dealers who dispose of smuggled goods in New York.

Customs officials said the Amsterdam and Antwerp markets cut about $100,000,000 worth of diamonds annually. Legitimate imports to United States were about $40,000,000 last year. Experts estimate that from 60 to 80 per cent of the total output of the foreign cutters reaches the United States.

The international smuggling rings are highly organized and some of them have agents in the South Africa mine fields, where illegal dealing in diamonds frequently starts.

Direct Message Comes To Radio Corporation From Bremen

REPAIRING SHAFT FOR NEW TAKEOFF

Miss Junkers Arrives In Montreal With Shaft; Ice Breaker Stuck

New York, April 17.—Major James Fitzmaurice, commander of the Irish air forces and co-hero of the Bremen's trans-Atlantic flight has been instructed by the Irish Free State to postpone his arrival in New York and Washington until he can make the flight south with his German colleagues.

The instructions were delivered to him at Nantassquan.

New York, April 17.—A direct message from the German fliers on Greenly Island, stating their intention to pilot the plane Bremen to New York tomorrow, was made public today by the Radio Corporation of America.

The message, sent out by W. F. Barrett, Marconi operator at Point Amour, several miles from Greenly island, follows:

"The Bremen's shaft is slightly damaged, but repairable. We expect to depart Wednesday. We had fog and snowstorm during part of our flight, and when we got near Greenly and saw the light, we mistook it for a sailing vessel, but after circling around ascertained it was a lighthouse and made a landing on a small pond. The crew was rather exhausted, but quite recovered after a short time."

"CAPT. KOEHL"
The message was obtained by a courier dispatched by dog sled to Greenly island by Barrett. The messenger returned to Point Amour before it had been decided that Maj. Fitzmaurice was to accompany Duke Schiller back to civilization.

Fitzmaurice On Way
Nantassquan, Que., April 17.—Commandant James E. Fitzmaurice, pilot of the German trans-Atlantic plane, Bremen, who was forced down here by stormy weather while flying from Greenly island to Murray Bay, Que., hoped to be able to continue his journey today, reaching the airport outside of Quebec before dusk. MOTORISTS OPEN SAFETY CRUSADE

War On Poor Brakes And Headlights Will Extend Thru Ohio

Directors of the Columbiana County Motor club, meeting in Lisbon Monday night, decided to give full support to a state-wide brake and headlight testing campaign.

An appeal has gone out from Gov. Donahue's office for volunteers to join this safety crusade, because of the alarming increase in accidents and deaths due to motor traffic. The governor declares "one-eye" autos and those with poor brakes constitute a menace to motoring, and he is making a state-wide appeal for co-operation on the part of motorists in the present campaign.

The school bus patrol system used in Salem and Lisbon has attracted the attention of Hancock county, West Virginia, and Sheriff J. A. Tope and H. O. Miller, superintendent of Hancock county schools, attended the meeting in Lisbon Monday night to get information on the conduct of the school patrol.

Columbus, April 17.—Designating the week of April 23 as "Motor Safety Week," Gov. Vic Donahue today issued a proclamation urging all owners of motor vehicles in Ohio paired and to have headlights adjusted to have the brakes inspected and re-adjusted.

AUTOIST HURT IN COLLISION

Tony Quinn, Ellsworth rd., suffered minor injuries when the automobile he was driving crashed into the 8 o'clock Y. & O. interurban at the corner of Green st. and Ellsworth ave. last night.

Quinn was driving on Ellsworth ave. and attempted to make the turn onto Green st., crashing head-on into the street car, wrecking the automobile, police say.

The extent of Quinn's injuries were not such as to make his condition serious and he was reported to be getting along well at the Central Clinic hospital where he was taken.

WE LOSE PALMAS

The United States has lost its claim to Palmas Island as a result of an arbitrator's decision giving it to Holland.

It is quite unlikely that one-half of one per cent of the people of the United States ever heard of Palmas Island. It is a tiny speck of land on the fringe of the Philippine archipelago. It is one of the islands, among six or seven thousand big and little islands which Uncle Sam found inside his net of sovereignty when it was thrown over that portion of the Pacific ocean at conclusion of the Spanish-American war.

There still are hundreds of the smaller islands which never have been mapped or named.

Among these small islands which the United States neglected was Palmas. This was only natural, because Palmas lies 48 miles off the nearest point of Mindanao, says the National Geographic Society, and is the farthest south of all the islands in the Philippine group.

There are 458 inhabitants on Palmas Islands, so the loss of the island will cut no particular figure in the sum total of the population of the United States when the next federal census is completed. And a pilot almost has to run his boat ashore before he knows he is anywhere near the island.

When Gov. Gen. Leonard Wood, on an inspection trip, stopped at Palmas several years ago, imagine his surprise when a native boat put out bravely flying the Dutch flag. The head man explained that a Dutch ship called there once a year to leave supplies and take off copra. The captain had left him a flag, with instructions to fly it.

Then the United States asked Spain if Spain had intended to include Palmas with the other islands of the Philippine group. Spain answered affirmatively. The United States questioned Holland, and Holland's diplomatic office replied that the natives of Palmas owed allegiance to tribes in the Netherlands East Indies.

Agreement was reached to arbitrate the question. The arbitrator was a Swiss. His decision gave Palmas to Holland. Fortunately, it is not an irritating boundary dispute. Bestowal of Palmas makes little or no difference to the United States, to Holland or to the people of the island.

Three coconut trees will support a family and that is about all a native of Palmas needs to get along with in his little world.

But the lesson the people of the United States should learn from the loss of Palmas is that it will be a silly thing for this government ever to become entangled in a League of Nations or a World Court which arbitrates all boundary disputes, no matter how trivial or how serious—with a foreigner as the arbitrator.

And, as in the case of Palmas Island, Uncle Sam very likely would come out on the short end of the bargain.

MRS. LEVAN

Ohio is fortunate in numbering among its women many who are outstanding as leaders. Chief of among them is Mrs. Wilma Sinclair LeVan, of Steubenville, Republican national committeewoman from Ohio, and a candidate for delegate-at-large to the Republican convention in Kansas City.

Mrs. LeVan's capabilities are known nationally as well as among her hosts of friends in Ohio. She is prominent as a Republican party worker and as a home-maker. She has not permitted her public life to interfere at all with her home life. During the last four years, Mrs. LeVan has given largely of her time and energy within the ranks of the Republican party, and for the purposes of the Republican party. She has accomplished a splendid work.

Selection of the national committeewoman and national committeewoman from Ohio will be made at Kansas City by the members of the Ohio delegation to the convention. And Mrs. LeVan is one of the candidates on Willis' ticket which goes before the April 24 primary. With the Willis supporters sent to the Kansas City convention, Mrs. LeVan will be assured re-election as national committeewoman—an honor which she has earned, and to which she is entitled.

Republican women when they go to the polls on April 24 are capable, of course, of making their own selections. However, they should not overlook the fact that one of their number who has distinguished herself within and for the party is an uninstructed delegate and free to support the very best candidate mentioned at the convention.

What Others Say

OUR LAWLESS LAWS

The American League for Sunday Observance, or whatever the name of the association may be, has planned a great campaign to be launched on Washington in the immediate future. They are concentrating all their energies upon the capital, in the belief that, if they can gain a victory there, its reverberations will be felt throughout the country. In the United States, as elsewhere, many old laws exist that are never enforced, but which nobody has troubled to repeal. A large number of these date from the Puritan times, when the Calvinists attempted by law and persecution to make everybody as melancholy as themselves.

The cry of the reformers, therefore, is the necessity of enforcing the law. They argue that America is suffering from a spirit of lawlessness—which nobody would deny—and they conclude from this premise that the cure lies in the strict enforcement of each and every law. They fail, of course, to realize that lawlessness in America is due, not to American wickedness, but to American laws. It is not the vice of the lawmakers, but the folly of the legislators, that it is fault.

The way to produce lawlessness is to make laws for which there is no moral sanction in the conscience of the people. If you make it a crime for a man to drink a glass of beer, you will produce lawlessness as certainly as if you make it a crime for a man to drive at the speed of 30 miles an hour on a straight and open road—London Graphic.

WE SAT IN ONCE

Great Britain can think up the nicest proposals for the limitation of naval armaments—and still leave England mistress of the seas. Her latest, made by Lord Cusheundun, is for a conference to limit the size of battleships to 30,000 tons, reduce the big guns from 16 inch bore to 13.5 inches, and extend the life of present capital ships from 20 to 26 years.

That looks like something offered on the side of smaller armaments. But let's examine it. England, with a fleet of dreadnaughts that out-range and outspeed most American capital ships—England, with the greatest of all fighting machines the 35,000 tons Rodney and Nelson, which she got out of the Washington conference while America hauled out and bombed her fighting fortresses that would have compared with them—is very well satisfied with the status quo. "Let's extend the time six years for this next arrangement," England says in effect. It is neat.

Further, when the three naval powers begin to replace, England would like to see smaller ships. Here the question of naval bases is the nigger of the ocean. Britain can very well afford to cut down the space for fuel, and lessen the cruising radius—because she has filling stations on every sea. But how would that leave America, with only three or four bases of her own in all the world where her ships can refuel? It is the same British proposal that was made at the last conference, when the admiralty stood out for smaller cruisers. America saw how the cards were being stacked, and she will not be slow to see it again.

And smaller guns? That is the neatest of all. Today Britain has all 20 of her battleships armed with 13-inch guns or heavier, her shooting power being crowned by the 16-inch bulldogs of the Rodney and Nelson. So, leave things as they are as long as possible and then by new agreement prevent America from taking advantage of replacements that would naturally come after 1931, when the naval question is to be reopened under the Washington agreement.

The only trouble with this proposal is that it is too neat. Secretary Hughes lost about everything but his whiskers at the Washington conference. It is hardly possible that America will repeat that experience. When Great Britain is ready to come forward with a real disarmament proposal, she will find sympathetic ears. But we are not interested in strip poker—Milwaukee Journal.

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of April 17, 1908)

A cleanup day was first established by the Salem board of health a few years ago and has since been adopted by other health boards in surrounding towns. May 5, is set for the cleanup this year here.

There has never been a winter and spring with as little complaint as the present. Health Officer Schwartz reports. During the month of March eight deaths occurred in the city.

Wednesday night's freeze was rather hard on early gardeners, but was hardly severe enough to do any harm.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18.

Life is not a goblet to be dined; it is a measure to be filled.—Hudley.

The stellar operations for this day point to many lively and unforeseen occurrences and situations affecting the personal as well as business life. All affairs are under high stimulus, possibly due to a commotion which may cause a change of environment and associations. Although the element of surprise or of the unconventional may be uppermost, pleasant and happy conditions rule.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a year of unexpected events and situations, with change in home, environment and associates. A great sense of spirit of enterprise may lead to this and bring about unusual and unplaned predicaments. These may be happy and lead to unforeseen satisfaction. A child born on this day will be enterprising, aggressive and fond of change. It will succeed in employment and have much inclination to several pleasures and will be active in domestic and social and romantic employments.

THE SALEM NEWS

FRUIT IS ESSENTIAL TO IDEAL BREAKFAST

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland, M. D., United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Not long ago I sat at dinner next to the secretary of navy. We got to talking about the diet of the sailor boys. Observing my interest in the subject, the secretary sent me a copy of the breakfast menu together with the quantities of food consumed and cost of one meal for entire navy and marine corps.

Next time you see an estimate of where the money goes that we appropriate for the navy, you will know how a lot of it is spent. For a single breakfast there are required 18,824 dozen eggs or 12,49 tons, and of other foods, 52.93 tons, a total of 66.45 tons. The total cost for the one meal is $19,563.36, an estimated cost for each man of 17.32 cents.

On Sept. 19, 1927, upon which the figures are based, the menu was as follows:

Oatmeal with milk and sugar—two ounces of cereal and an ounce of milk.
Ham and eggs—two eggs and three ounces of meat.
Fried potatoes—three ounces.
Bread—four ounces.
Butter—one half ounce.
Coffee—one half ounce and an ounce of sugar for the cereal and coffee.

Men in the navy are pretty active. Much of their work is real work. On this account energy producing foods are required. The standard meal provides them.

I am frank to say I would like to see the first course changed to fruit. At least it would be better for persons in civil life who are more sedentary in their habits, to reduce the carbohydrates a bit.

One fault I have to find with the average breakfast is that it contains excessive quantities of fats, sugar and starches. The cereal is largely starch. To this you add cream and sugar.

The egg bacon breadstuffs, soup or marmalade and potatoes belong to the same food group. In consequence, the fuel foods are in excess unless you are doing hard manual labor and require them.

The navy food program is pretty good, although I still think fruit, fresh or stewed, should begin the meal. But "the test of the pudding is in the eating" and the low sickness rate of the navy is an evidence that the men thrive on the "grub."

I was pleased to note the enthusiasm of Secretary Wilbur over the hopes and plans of his organization. The men in command are thinking always of ways and means to improve the physical welfare of the officers and men of that important branch of our national defense.

Answers to Health Queries
E. O. Q.—I am 16 years old, five feet four inches and weigh 117 pounds. Am I underweight? How can I gain in weight?

A.—You are three pounds underweight. To gain in weight I would suggest that you eat your meals at regular hours. Add to your diet milk, cream, fresh eggs, plenty of green vegetables, fresh and stewed fruit. Make sure that your kidneys and bowels eliminate properly. Avoid excessive use of tea and coffee. Drink two or three glasses of water between meals. Exercise freely in the fresh air and practice deep breathing. Sleep as many hours as possible in a well-ventilated room. Avoid fatigue, worry and irregular habits. A good tonic would prove helpful. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

M. A. Q.—What will clear up blackheads?

A.—This requires special treatment. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

2.—What causes dark rings around the eyes?

A.—This may be due to constipation. Have your meals at regular hours. Eat simple, well cooked food. Avoid foods unduly rich in fats and starches. Exercise is essential. For details send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

3.—What should a girl weigh who is 14 years old and five feet two inches tall?

A.—I have broken arches. What will help them?

A.—For her age and height she should weigh about 110 pounds.

4.—I would suggest that you consult an orthopedist. He will fit you for arch supports.

B. M. H. Q.—How much should a girl, 16½ years old, 5 ft. 1 inch tall weigh?

A.—She should weigh about 115 pounds.

B. H. G. Q.—What would cause thinness on the great toe to drop out of a shoe? This year they have become discolored and stopped growing. There is no pain.

A.—It would be difficult to advise you without examining the trouble. Why not have your doctor look at the toes and suggest the treatment you need.

Young King of Bulgaria to Wed Own Choice---Love Beats Politicians

PRINCESS GIOVANNA OF ITALY
(International Illustrated News)

KING BORIS OF BULGARIA
(International Illustrated News)

Reliable diplomatic rumors, linking the young bachelor King Boris of Bulgaria with the charming Princess Giovanna of Italy in wedding plans for an early date bare a startling story of love and politics. Back in the years following the World war, when Stambulsky, a farmer-peasant, rose to power as prime minister of Bulgaria, this drama took place.

Boris, a mere youngster and new to the kingly throne, vacated by the abdication of his father, Czar Ferdinand, was temporarily a pawn in the rough peasant's hands. "The king must marry for money," the late premier declared.

The crafty farmer-dictator figured that Bulgaria's post-war poverty could be alleviated by the influx of an American girl-queen's millions.

Boris, descendant of the Hohenzollerns of Germany on his father's side and the great House of Orleans in France through his mother, had to bow meekly to the will and scheme of the home-spun premier.

But the amazing plan never bore fruit.

As the bride-seeking delegation was riding the Atlantic waves on a steamship bound for New York, Stambulsky, the master-schemer, was laid low by bullets.

At the height of his power and tyrannical oppression of the upper classes whom he made to do manual work and the military, which he tried to abolish, a conspiracy was hatched to kill him.

Caught unawares, the old farmer fled with a few faithful followers to the wild mountainous country adjoining Sofia, the Bulgarian capital.

A troop of cavalry officers who were hard on his trail trapped the old plotter in his mountain lair. The end was as sudden as his rise to power.

Boris, practically a prisoner in his palace, was overjoyed at the welcome news. He was now free to select a queen of his own choice.

But, like his cousin, the Prince of Wales, Boris showed no desire to quickly enter the marriage state.

Handsome, well educated in English schools, fond of outdoor games and automobiles, he used his time in riding about his small country.

but the Bulgarian people, used to early marriages themselves and the raising of large families, looked coldly upon the young bachelor king's single state.

Each time he returned from a trip to Paris they hoped he would bring a new queen with him. Rumors of his betrothal to Ileana of Roumania, Swedish and Belgian princesses and the daughter of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland were favorably received by his subjects.

To all this diplomatic gossip Boris remained enigmatical. He evidently would marry only for love, never for political gain.

Now, it is reliably stated, the young king has met his mate.

The Princess Giovanna is the next eligible daughter of King Victor Emanuel and Queen Margherita of Italy. She is a charming brunette, talented and accomplished like her two older married sisters.

The royal match meets the approval of the Bulgarian people, and though it is said to be strictly a love match, it will make a political alliance between Italy and the little Balkan nation that warms the heart of diplomats on both sides.

WEAO MANAGER HITS RADIO FEE

Coleman Says Americans Would Oppose System England Uses

Columbus, April 17.—That severe opposition would result from American radio listeners if they were to be taxed for the programs they hear over receiving sets, is now the prevailing custom in England. In the opinion of Robert C. Coleman, announcer at WEAO, Ohio State university radio station.

"The plan of letting the people pay for the radio programs could not be inaugurated successfully in this country," Coleman believes. "The people of the United States would never allow their rights to be hampered in such a way."

"American radio fans could never tolerate dictation as to which station they would have to listen to. And as for entertainment, people vary in tastes, one may like a certain program which another may not like."

"They might introduce the system," Announcer Coleman maintains, "and they might place it into effect, but they will have extreme difficulty in collecting the fees."

According to Coleman's figures, the English government collects 12 shillings a year, which is a little less than one cent a night from each owner of a receiving set. The money obtained, he says, goes to hire better professional entertainment to perform before the microphone.

TWO ALLIANCE CHILDREN DEAD IN ACCIDENTS

Alliance, April 17.—Americo Barcoli, 11, of 1280 S. Mahoning ave., was killed when the automobile in which he was riding was overturned and Elizabeth Ruch, 4, R. F. D., lost her life when a train struck her parent's machine Sunday.

Americo was enroute from Alliance to Canton to witness the christening of his five-months-old sisters, twins, Sunday morning in an automobile driven by Frank Foudrist, R. F. D. 6, Canton. In the machine were Victor Barcoli, the boy's father; Mrs. Mary Barcoli, his mother; Paula, 13, his sister, and the twins.

The automobile was being driven down a long hill in front of the John Conrad farm near Alliance when suddenly it approached a car that had overturned on the slippery pavement. Alliance police had not learned Monday the identity of those in the overturned machine, but said no one was injured seriously.

Occupants of the stalled car signaled Foudrist to stop to avoid crashing into them. When he attempted to brake his auto it skidded on the ice-coated pavement and turned around in the road, hurling the boy through the windshield. He was cut by the glass and died from loss of blood shortly after he had been taken to Alliance City hospital.

Elizabeth Ruch was killed; her brother, 2, may die with a fractured skull, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruch, were injured when their automobile was struck by a Cleveland and Pittsburgh train at a grade crossing at Bolton, near Alliance, Sunday evening.

Mr. Ruch, who was driving the family car, halted at the crossing while a southbound train thundered past. Then he started the car across the tracks when another train, northbound on a second track, ploughed into the automobile.

The car burst into flames and the little girl, trapped in the wreckage was cremated.

Cleveland—Fred Wilks, 63, who has walked the streets of Cleveland for 42 years as a mail carrier, will retire on a pension next week, with more than 160,000 miles behind him. "It doesn't pay much, but in one way it is the finest job in the world," he says. "People are always glad to see you."

When Pain Comes

Two hours after eating

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

DOCTOR DIES OF BULLET WOUND

Shot By Frenzied Man, Columbus Physician Succumbs Today

Columbus, April 17.—Dr. Austin H. Seeds, 38, died in Grant hospital here early today of bullet wounds inflicted in his office yesterday afternoon by Gust Jouraras, 36, of Zanesville.

Jouraras, a Greek laborer, after fatally wounding Dr. Seeds, turned the pistol on himself and died instantly.

Jouraras was hurt about a year ago while working for the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company cement works, south of Zanesville. A wall collapsed and Jouraras suffered fractured ribs and internal injuries.

Up until January of this year Jouraras had received regular compensation from the state industrial commission. In February he was sent to Doctor Seeds and Dr. T. R. Fletcher, and on their report, the compensation was discontinued.

Nurse Witnesses Tragedy

Jouraras went to Dr. Seeds' office yesterday and demanded to see him. After the two had been together in the doctor's office several minutes, Dr. Seeds summoned his nurse, Miss Mildred Ashton, 23, and when she entered Jouraras had drawn a pistol. He immediately began shooting at Dr. Seeds, according to the girl's account of the tragedy and the physician slumped behind his desk.

The nurse then attempted to stop the frenzied Greek and in the ensuing scuffle she was thrown against the glass door to the office and her shoulder slightly cut by broken glass. As she screamed for help Jouraras placed the gun against his head and pulled the trigger. Dr. Seeds, with four bullets in his body was taken to the hospital where he died at 3:15 a. m. today.

New York, April 17.—Slugged into insensibility in his apartment, Dr. E. Garmsey Brownell, prominent physician and a lieutenant-colonel in aviation during the World war, was taken to Roosevelt hospital in a dying condition today. He suffered a possible skull fracture.

DISBAR LAWYER FOR TWO YEARS

Arthur Gurkies Found Guilty By Judge Of Moral Turpitude

Urbana, April 17.—Arthur W. Gurkies, attorney formerly of Dayton, Ohio, was this morning suspended from the practice of law in the Ohio common pleas courts for the period of two years after Judge Hamilton Hoge, of Hardin county, found him guilty of the "blanket" charge of moral turpitude.

There were seven specific charges against Gurkies, including charges of obtaining money under false pretenses and diverting money to his own uses.

Gurkies previously had been disbarred from the practice of law by the Montgomery county courts in 1923, according to testimony introduced in his hearing here. He was reinstated about a year later.

In passing the sentence on Gurkies, Judge Hoge said that he had enough evidence to disbar him for life but that he wanted to give the attorney another chance.

Judge Hoge was requested to sit on the bench here in Champaign county by request of the committee of attorneys that investigated the charges against Gurkies.

the storeroom by the firm. R. S. McCulloch & Co., feeling also the increasing business, will remodel the interior of the store. The office, located near the center of the long store, is to be moved to the rear and the space it took up will be used for bettering of service and displays. Other general improvements are being made.

The Spring-Holzworth Co., on Broadway, will soon greatly increase its floor space when the improvements now under way are completed. It is planned to take over the storeroom used by the Reeves Co., which adjoins on the north. Spring-Holzworth expects to put a new front on the building, taking in both storerooms, and this will make one of the finest mercantile establishments in the city.

The Murphy five and ten cent store will soon more than double its space by the construction of a big addition and basement work, on which is now under way. Excavation is nearly completed. When the addition is finished, the front will be remodeled and the present storeroom widened.

Residential Stores Boom

Sabin's furniture store, formerly located at 35 Main st. in the Balm building, is now located at 106 Main st. in a larger storeroom. The former location is to be used by the A. & P. Co., which is also increasing the size of its store at Depot and Roosevelt.

Business houses outside the downtown area, which have constructed new buildings or made improvements, are the H. G. Hixenbaugh store at Superior and Garfield; Hayden & Glass food shop at Hawley and McKinley; A. W. Glass grocery at East High and Garfield; O. D. Paxson, Newarden st., and Kaufman Brothers, who are now erecting a new building on Broadway.

New buildings, remodeling, all kinds of improvements mean better service, better facilities, and larger displays of merchandise from which the customers will benefit.

power to be developed in the international section near northern New York.

"Public opinion in Canada," said Vincent Massey, Canadian minister, in his note of January 31, "is opposed to the export of hydro-electric power, and is insistent that such power as may be developed on the St. Lawrence shall be utilized within the dominion to stimulate Canadian industry and develop natural resources. Development of power on the Canadian side should not exceed the capacity of the Canadian market to absorb it."

Ontario Sympathetic

On that paragraph, the exchanges appear to have deadlocked. "The United States," Kellogg replied, "ought to have its share of the power of the international section without waiting until Canada may be able to sell her power from these works."

Massey responded that Canada could do nothing until vexatious constitutional questions at issue between the provincial governments of Ontario and Quebec and the Dominion government itself had been decided by Canadian courts and the privy council at London.

In Ontario, where all power production is in the hands of the provincial government. The attitude toward the waterway is more sympathetic. Kellogg's suggestion that a conference be called to deal only with the larger aspects of the problem while the minor differences be left for later technical commissions was rejected.

Expenditure of $655,000,000 is contemplated in the Canadian plan, accepted in principle but with important material qualifications by the United States.

The "safest" safe in London probably is one which a large business firm has built in the outer wall with the door opening on the street, so that no cracksmen could tamper with it except in view of all the passers-by.

REFUSE STAY IN COAL RATES

Washington, April 17.—The supreme court today refused to grant a stay which would prevent southern railroads from putting reduced rates on lake cargo coal from West Virginia and Kentucky into effect on April 20.

The court's decision was announced from the bench by Chief Justice Taft after it had granted the extraordinary hearing to attorneys for northern coal operators.

Brewery, Cleveland Landmark, Burned

Cleveland, April 17.—Only the walls of the George V. Muth brewery—a landmark here for many years—remained today following a fire late Monday which caused a loss of approximately $50,000. Nine companies of firemen fought the blaze for five hours.

The building for the past ten years had been used as a storage house.

FLIERS

tanoe is approximately 600 miles.

High winds prevailed throughout the night, but Fitzmaurice was so anxious to resume his journey that the pilot of the plane, "Duke" Schiller was ready to take more than the usual chances.

Fitzmaurice's decision to leave the Bremen was made after a conference with Capt. Herman Koehl and Baron von Huenefeld. It is understood that there was no disagreement of any kind. The three fliers will unite later on.

Fitzmaurice has in his possession a letter of greeting from President William T. Cosgrave, of the Irish Free State, to President Coolidge.

Girl In Montreal

About 6 o'clock last night Miss Herta Junkers, daughter of the builder of the Bremen, arrived at Montreal in a sister ship of the trans-Atlantic plane, the Junkers F-13.

The plane was piloted by Fred Melcher, Gerhard Junkers, brother of Herta, accompanied her.

The F-13 carried surplus fuel and spare parts intended for the Bremen.

There are rumors that Fitzmaurice's flight with Schiller was made for the purpose of meeting the F-13 at Montreal and then flying it back to Greenly Island with the repair parts. The F-13 is equipped with the only propeller in America which will fit the Bremen.

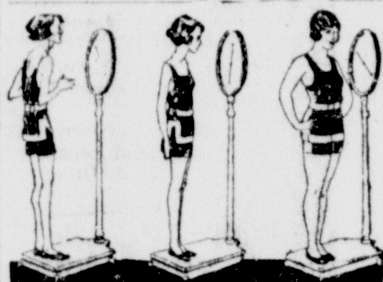

Ice Breaker Caught

Murray Bay, Que., April 17.—The ice breaker Montcalm, which tried to go to the relief of the crew of the Bremen on Greenly Island, reported by wireless today that it had been caught in an ice floe in Belle Isle strait and was drifting 85 miles southwest of the island.

Thank Coolidge

Washington, April 17.—President Coolidge today received a message of thanks from the German-Irish crew of the airplane Bremen for his congratulatory message of yesterday.

Markets

REACTIONARY
New York, April 17.—With the exception of the oils, which reached fractionally higher prices, the stock market was slightly reactionary at the opening today. Standard Oil of New Jersey sold at a new high of 45 for 6000 shares, and Standard Oil of New York at 33 1/4, up 1/2. United States Steel recovered a point at 148. General Electric lost 1/4 at 173. Radio was down 1/4 at 133 1/2. American Lined down 1/4 at 97 1/2. International Nickel down 1/4 at 39. Hudson Motor down 1/4 at 91 1/2.

The Standard and Independent oil stocks continued their moderate upward swing in early trading today, while the industrial and motor stocks moved downward. Steel stocks made an indifferent response to the trade situation, and most of the motor stocks lost ground. Market leaders in the specialties were also under selling pressure, and their advance halted. Strength in the Pan-American oils was due in part to the favorable earnings report of Line Petroleum, owned and controlled by this company. The Standard Oil of New York, New Jersey, and California held their position at the head of the pack, though Sinclair, Maryland, B. Hall, Texas Corporation, Phillips, Mexican Seaboard, Lago Houston and Pure Oil sold up about a point on the average.

National Power and Light continued to feature the low-priced utilities reaching a new high at 22 1/2, up about 10 points on the movement. The New York City Gas and Electric stocks moved forward to the accompaniment of reports of progress in consolidating important properties.

General Electric lost about 4 points, General Motors down 2 1/2; Chrysler and Hudson down a point each.

Crude Rubber broke to a new low under 17 cents a pound.

QUIZ SUSPECTS IN SLAYING OF TOLEDO OFFICER

Police Round Up Scores Of Men and Women To Find Desperadoes

Toledo, April 17.—Intent on bringing to justice the desperadoes who yesterday killed their fellow-officer, George Zientara, as the climax of a daring, daylight hold-up, Toledo police today were conducting a vigorous "underworld" round-up, while detectives were questioning dozens of men and women at headquarters.

The fact that Patrolman Zientara was murdered with a machine gun has apparently caused authorities to lend serious consideration to the theory that the ruthless gang came here from Chicago.

Detectives Timiney and O'Reilly left this morning for Chicago to examine the police department "regues gallery" in that city, in the hope of positively identifying the fugitives.

Though they made good their escape after killing Zientara, the bandits abandoned their loot, consisting of two strong boxes from an American Express company truck and a check-up reveals that nothing else was seized, officials of the company said today.

The robbers drove up alongside the truck as it was leaving the Union station yesterday morning. Covering the three guards and the driver with pistols, they proceeded to the University of Toledo campus, about three miles away. Here two other automobiles are said to have been waiting and the huge strong boxes were transferred to one of these.

Two apartments, where the gang is said to have lived were raided later and two women and two children taken into custody. Police have thus far elicited but little information from these persons.

THREE DEAD IN JAP POLITICAL FACTION FIGHT

Tokio, April 17.—A furious clash between members of two political factions resulted in the death of three adherents of the Minseit party near Osaka today.

Four other members of the same faction were severely injured in the clash.

The Minseitites were attacked by seven members of the National association for the preservation of peace, the largest reactionary organization in Japan.

The clash today was only one of many recent political outbursts which are becoming more and more frequent as the date of the opening of the diet, April 21, approaches.

Heavy Bookings On Detroit Air Line

Cleveland, April 17.—The heaviest bookings in the company's history are being reported this week by the Stout Airways Inc., between Cleveland and Detroit.

Monday, for the first time, the company was forced to fly an extra plane on the route when the afternoon traffic exceeded the regular plane capacity.

Fifty-six passengers were carried, 34 going from this city to Detroit. Many of these carried went to attend the aviation show.

Reason for Webster's

Preference for Blue

Daniel Webster went to Dartmouth college in a homespun suit, of which probably every thread was carded, spun and woven by his mother's hands from the wool of their own sheep. It was a dyed-in-the-wool suit and the color was indigo blue.

In the South butternut was used, but though the Yankee dames knew all about the uses of butternut bark, and the slate color that lay in the sunbaked berries and bark of white maple, and were not unacquainted with the various dyes that could be made to yield through the pores to "set" their fast, the universal standby in New England was the dye pot, par excellence, that stood in the chimney corner of every kitchen in that region.

So Webster was fitted out in indigo blue from collar to ankle. Before reaching Hanover there came a drenching rain. The suit held its own, but it parted with enough dye to tinge Daniel blue from head to foot.

Webster had a liberal stratum of sentiment in his mental make-up, and for some reason the color of his youth remained his favorite wear through life. He wore blue coats to his dying day. If any one ever saw him in one of a different color the fact has not been made of record.

CHASE ANSWERS LOAN QUESTIONS

Old Mystery About Fall Partly Solved By Senate Probers

Washington, April 17.—An old mystery was partly solved at the senate oil inquiry today although the search for the Continental Trading company's $3,089,000 Liberty Bond "slush fund" ran into another blank wall.

Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, Mrs. John T. Pratt, widow of the New York capitalist, and Clarence C. Chase, son-in-law of Albert B. Fall, took the witness stand but all three declared they knew nothing about the Continental bonds.

Chase told of accompanying Fall to New York where the former cabinet officer saw Edward L. Doheny.

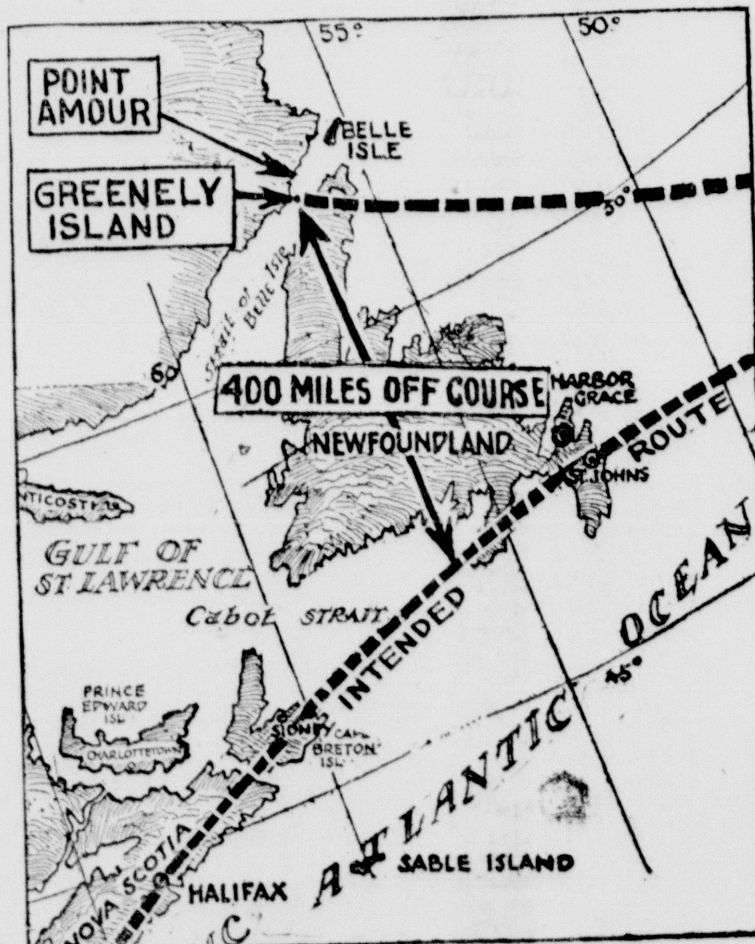

Chase told also of going with Fall to Atlantic City where they met Edward B. McLean, the Washington publisher, who once said he had loaned Fall $100,000 but who later retracted his story.

These were the questions Chase refused to answer several years ago on the ground they might tend to incriminate him.

Among the gifts received by Captain Lindbergh while in Paris was a box of spaghetti, sent by Italian admirers who had read that he was fond of pie. The word "pie" was translated as "pate," which is also used to designate various productions of the genus spaghetti, hence the gift.

By using oil to lay the dust in London schools, instead of having the floors scrubbed regularly, it is hoped to save $60,000 a year.

FAR FROM INTENDED ROUTE

LIMITED HELD UP BY BANDIT

Lone Robber Gets Cash And Jewelry From Passengers

Chicago, April 17.—A lone bandit who last night held up the Overland Limited, on the Northwestern lines, and robbed a dozen passengers of cash and jewelry valued at several thousands of dollars, was the object of a city-wide search today.

The robbery was staged as the train, westbound to San Francisco, rolled out of the downtown station. The bandit, well groomed and dashing, gained entrance to the train.

He stood on the observation car platform among a dozen passengers. Scarcely had the train cleared the shed when the bandit quickly covered his face with a handkerchief and whipped out a revolver.

"All right folks, make it snappy," he commanded. "Put up your hands and be nice and nobody will get hurt."

After relieving the passengers—several of whom were women—of their wallets and purses, he pulled the emergency air cord. Halting the train he then leaped from the car and disappeared in the darkness.

Among the passengers aboard who avoided being robbed was James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight boxing champion.

GENUINE MAPLE FLAVOR PRODUCT PROCESS DEvised

Government Experts Find Way To Keep Flavor Separate Sugar

A process for manufacturing a true maple flavoring product, which when mixed with ordinary sugar syrup will make a reconstituted table syrup essentially the same as the commercial product, has been perfected by John W. Sale and J. B. Wilson, chemists of the food, drug and insecticide administration of the United States department of agriculture.

The process has been patented and has been dedicated to the public.

Already one large manufacturer of flavoring products has taken steps to put the new flavor on the market, and according to Mr. Sale, the public should soon be able to purchase a genuine maple flavor for the first time.

The new flavor, in Mr. Sale's opinion, may be used by confectioners, bakers, ice cream manufacturers, and housewives, or by any others who use flavoring products. An excellent sirup can be made at home merely by adding the flavor in suitable proportions to a gallon of ordinary sugar sirup of proper density. The reconstituted table sirup will possess the delightful aroma and flavor of the original maple product.

All flavoring extracts on the market at the present time which purport to be "maple flavor" are synthetic products, says Mr. Sale, and even though they are harmless must be branded as "imitation maple" to meet the requirements of the Federal Food and Drugs Act. Most of them are made from a number of ingredients, the principal one in most formulas being fenugreek seed, an Old World plant of the bean family sometimes known as Greek hay seed. Other ingredients often used in making synthetic maple flavor are elm bark, celery seed, hickory bark, coffee, chicory and vanilla.

Process Removes Sugar
No one has heretofore succeeded in preparing a genuine maple flavor—at least no flavor that is more concentrated than maple sugar. Maple sugar represents a maximum concentration of 1.3 parts maple sirup to 1 part maple sugar. All previous efforts toward the development of a true maple flavor have been along the lines of extracting the flavor itself.

The process devised by Sale and Wilson, on the other hand, removes the sugar (sucrose) leaving nothing but the flavoring constituents. The sugar is precipitated by mixing a quantity of barium hydroxide with a maple sugar solution such as maple sirup, partially concentrated maple sirup, maple sugar solution, or a combination of any two or more of these maple products. Subsequently the excess barium reagent is completely eliminated.

The flavor thus recovered from 40 gallons of ordinary maple sirup can be so concentrated that it will be contained in one gallon of the concentrated flavoring product. Removal of the sugar also greatly enhances the keeping quality of the flavoring product, sugar being a highly fermentable substance. A by-product of the process is a sirup which is desirable for table or other uses.

FERGUSONS OUT OF TEXAS RACE PA OPPOSES MA

Mrs. Supports Al Smith; Farmer Jim Approves Only of Reed

Austin, April 17.—The house of Ferguson is divided today insofar as presidential politics is concerned. The two former governors of Texas, "Farmer Jim" and "Ma" are not in agreement on who should be the Democratic nominee.

Mrs. Ferguson is supporting Al Smith, while her husband is championing the cause of Senator James A. Reed. However, both oppose an uninstructed delegation and both have stated that they will support the Democratic nominee.

The Fergusons have caused more political upsets than any other two persons who ever figured in the state's history.

First Appearance
Ferguson entered the political arena with a dash when in 1914 he defeated the veteran Tom Ball for governor. He was re-elected in 1916, unopposed in 1917, and overwhelmingly beaten in an attempted comeback in 1918 when he sought the governorship again, though barred from state office by the act of impeachment.

In 1920 he ran for president on the American party, which he was instrumental in forming. In 1922 he shocked the political wheats of the state by getting into the run-off with Earle B. Mayfield for the United States senate, but was defeated.

In 1924 Mrs. Ferguson announced for governor, asking "vindication" of her husband from impeachment, and opposing the Klan. Ferguson managed the campaign and his wife was elected. She was badly beaten for re-election by Dan Moody.

Neither a Candidate
For the first time in 14 years, neither of the Fergusons are candidates for office this year.

Ferguson, as he expressed it, is content to sell butter and eggs to his political opponents, he having gone in for dairy farming and poultry production on a large scale, and has a contract to supply some of the state institutions with these commodities.

"The hectic years have robbed Ferguson of much of his physical vigor, but he still retains his 'blacklist' of political enemies, and frequently makes use of his biting tongue, in excoriating their political shortcomings.

London—The Daily Mail recently said that F. P. Young, an airplane designer, who recently advertised for a woman or man to accompany him on a flight from London to New York in July, has received more than 400 applications, 80 of them from women.

New York—"Cat" perhaps is too hard for New York public school children to spell before they are nine years old. It has been omitted from a list of 1100 words for beginners.

Ohio's Opportunity

The next president of the United States will be nominated at the Kansas City Republican National Convention. Ohio has the opportunity of helping to select that candidate, if an uninstructed delegation is sent to the Convention.

The Willis delegates, if elected, will not be tied to any candidate. They will be an uninstructed delegation, free from any pledge except to the Republican voters of Ohio. They will be as judges to help determine and nominate that Republican who will make the best president for all the people and who will be most certain of election in November. The Willis delegates will have a wealth of qualified material from which to select that candidate, Calvin Coolidge, Charles Evan Hughes, Charles G. Dawes, Herbert Hoover, Frank O. Lowden, Charles Curtis, or some Republican not yet considered. The Hoover delegates are pledged to one candidate and this is their weakness.

If the Willis delegates do not win, will Mrs. Wilma Sinclair LeVan be re-elected a national committeewoman?

"SPEEDY"
Harold Lloyd came to the Grand yesterday, in his latest Paramount release, "Speedy," and it may be well recorded that the bespectacled comedian has succeeded again in surpassing his previous successes, with his latest offering.

Briefly, the story is that of a boy who is an ardent baseball fan, in fact so much so, that it hurts him in a "business way." Instead of bending his efforts to the job in hand, he spends all his time day dreaming of his favorites on the diamond, especially Babe Ruth and Len Gehrig, the Yankee stars. He is fired summarily from job to job for the same reason. He is dubbed "Speedy" because of his aptness in obtaining and getting fired from work. However, a crisis occurs in his home life and with that of the girl he loves, so Speedy bends all his efforts to help rectify the trouble, and the resulting experiences smack of the high standard Lloyd has set for himself.

More hilarity is due when he is seen driving a horse car through one of the busiest streets of New York, and more still when he is seen as a driver of a taxi, and further in the Coney Island sequences. Harold introduces to film fans a new leading lady. It will be remembered that Bebe Daniels, Mildred Davis, (who became Mrs. Lloyd), and Jobyna Ralston were elevated to film stardom by appearing with him. It appears that Harold has chosen another star to be, with Ann Christy, his new leading lady.

"HELEN OF TROY"

"The Private Life of Helen of Troy," which opened its engagement at the State last night, stands by itself as a motion picture.

It has comedy in generous quantities. It is satirical, sly, subtle, broad, humorous, whimsical and daring by turns. It is richly costumed and displays sets breath-taking in their magnitude and striking in their originality of design.

"The Private Life of Helen of Troy," as did John Erskine's novel on which it is based, takes the mythology of ancient Greece as its foundation, with particular attention paid to the abduction of Helen by Paris and the Trojan War, with its famous wooden horse, which followed the elopement.

But it takes these legends, and these heroic figures, and cleaves through the misty mythology and makes them human, comic and whole affair concerning the elopement and the war which followed, is made intensely human and commonplace and quite funny.

Maria Corda, foreign actress imported for the role, leaves nothing to be desired, either in her beauty and grace or her interpretation of the role. Lewis Stone, surpassing even his own fine performances of the past, plays the role of Menelaos with a smoothness and understanding, and a new and infinitely greater Ricardo Cortez appears as Paris.

THE NEW IDEA

IN the old days it was sometimes considered fashionable to be delicate and pale, but it is different now. The woman of today believes that she has as good a claim to health and strength as a man has, and often needs them more. When she experiences a general fagged-out feeling, and rest does not restore her, she goes straight to her favorite drug store and buys a bottle of that popular herbal tonic,

Losing These Extra Pounds

It is so easy to take on and so hard to lose the extra pounds for most of us that we are constantly searching for help. We had tried to count calories, do away with starches and sweets, give up our favorite rich dishes, but it availed little. We were still fat.

About this time we heard of a man who had ways of his own that accomplished wonders and we went to investigate. Right here we met our Waterloo. Every scrap of real food was snatched from us, in its place we were given all the oranges we could eat, apples, pears—any fruit but bananas.

Coffee, tea, milk and cocoa went the way of the foods and water hot and cold took their place. A daily high colonic irrigation was given and plenty of restful sleep, outdoor exercise and free bathing was allowed. We started in to do or die.

Strange to say, we never felt stronger than we did on this meager diet. As our heads cleared and the pounds fell away, we began to realize what a burden we were losing. We breathed more deeply, walked more lightly, slept better and our various lamenesses commenced to leave us. In four weeks our friends were speechless with surprise.

The man watched us and gradually brought us back to simple food. We discovered to our surprise that we had lost the ravenous appetite we had formerly boasted, and that the man's prophecy was true. For a short time we looked haggard but we soon began to pick up and gradually began to look years younger. Of course, it was very hard, and we suffered the pangs of hunger when we saw others eating, and immediately went for an orange or an apple. It took courage of a sort to stick to the diet but we did and lost 45 pounds.

This was ten months ago and we are going back again soon to lose maybe 10 or 15 more, but not to stay so long a time on the diet. Half-way measures never accomplish much, especially where one is very heavy and continually eating the things that taste good.

Fat is unnecessary, unwholesome and certainly not beautifying. It makes us a burden to ourselves, deprives us of much pleasure in acting about and doing the things other people do.

Paris, April 17.—The beaded gown which never seems to say die, has come back again this spring in simple but striking models.

It is no longer the heavy sheath it once was. Even Tulle and the lightest of chiffons are not ineffectual too thin and fragile to support the beads and spangles as they are now used. More than that, they are being used on all kinds of frocks. In pale pink they form the collar and cuffs of a pale pink jersey jumper. In silver, they are used for the ties and cuffs of a pale blue wool georgette worn with a coat trimmed in silver braid. A black taffeta coat which is lined with pink and worn with a frock of pale georgette has long narrow revers and cuffs of overlapping paillettes in the same bluish pink.

This spring many of the beaded frocks are trimmed with a small silver bead called "grain d'orge" because it looks like a little barley-grain, beautifully arranged in clusters of flowers. A charming frock in white georgette has a silver-lace yoke, rounded at the back in a deep

V panel and with beaded panels in both front and back.

Clusters in the smallest of satin beads are used to form the tunic of another in gray chiffon and rows of the same beads alternately with strasse ornament the circular skirt.

A princess robe in dull gold has a sunburst design on one side of the waist composed of strasse and crystal beads and another on the opposite side of the skirt with the ends extending until they almost meet.

CHICAGO CLAIMS COMING LEAD IN AIR TRANSPORT

Handling Twice Amount Of Air Mail Of Any Other In World

Chicago, April 17.—Already handling more than twice the volume of air mail cleared by any other city in the world, Chicago will be the air transport center of the nation, according to a survey just issued by the Chicago Association of Commerce.

Seventeen permanent airports have been established here, according to the report, headed by Municipal Airport, conceded to be one of the finest fields in existence. Geographical advantages were given as the chief reason for the tremendous strides of aviation here during the past few years. Mail from all parts of the country clears through Chicago air routes and the greatest trans-continental air lines have established terminals here.

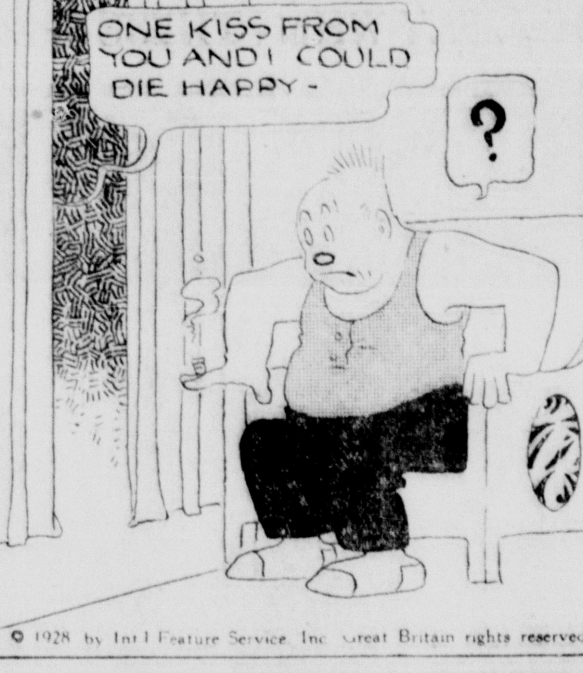

Nine factories of airplanes now are situated in Chicago, and a move is under way, backed by prominent financiers here, to bring additional factories to this city.

The Laird airplane and the Health "parasol" are among the types now being produced here.

Land values of airports here are tremendous, according to the survey.

Municipal Field is occupying a space valued at $10,000,000 and additions are expected to be made shortly. Improvements costing $250,000 have been made at this field. A bond issue providing more money will be placed before the people of Chicago this spring.

Air taxi and sightseeing services here now number twenty-one and nine corporations use airplanes in their daily business transactions.

Planes, the survey showed, are coming into favor with large manufacturers and distributors here to a means of offering quick access to distant branches for executives. In place of a drawn out series of letters, or of a barrage of telegrams, Chicago executives are availing themselves of the plane and going to branch offices personally.

This use of airplanes, it was indicated by the report, will be an important factor in development of landing fields and other facilities here.

Business Men Fly
"Many Chicago business men are considering purchase of airplanes," the report says. "They realize the necessity for rapid travel, and find the airplane is a dependable and practical means."

"A five passenger plane, fully loaded, can be operated for less than ten cents per passenger mile." The report, the most complete ever compiled here, gives full information on air and passenger services, with a schedule of arrivals and departures on all regular lines.

An industrial district in Chicago devoted exclusively to airplane manufacturing is seen by members of the Association of Commerce. This district would be able to furnish every need of commercial aviation, and would manufacture all its own materials, according to the report.

BOBBY MAY BE MISSING FROM AMERICAN TEAM

Jones Undecided About Entering Tourneys in Britain

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 17.—Although late indications were that Robert T. Jones, Jr., the kid himself, will turn up again, it is quite certain this time a small but quite select group of golfers today were ready to rally around the premonition of the Aquitania for the annual fling at the British open golf championship.

The Aquitania is scheduled to sail at midnight tomorrow for Southampton and the first class passenger list carries the entries of Gene Sarazen and Tommy Armour, American champions, past and present respectively; Bill Mehlhorn, seldom out of the money, and Walter Hagen, holder of a British and American titles several times over.

The impending departure of the last boat that can get under the wire for the British event leaves Jones very little leeway in which to repeat his overnight decision of last year. Robert must leave Atlanta no later than tonight in order to make the gang plank and the last word was that he had agreed to play in some Olympic field matches next month, and therefore, couldn't be expected to be among those present for the midnight sailing.

Sarazen's inclusion in the party represents a change of plans so sudden that Gene is spending the day having all of his clubs reshaped in order to comply with British regulations, which bar everything except hickory.

Representative Team

The British, of course, will be simply decimated if Robert decides to stay away. Not more than twice in the last eight years have they been able to win their own championship and the way this fellow Jones trifled with sacred traditions at Sunningdale and St. Andrews in 1926 and 1927 seemed to indicate that it might become necessary to award him their title by acclamation.

Even without Jones, the American team is a representative one. Sarazen has put in a real come back since undergoing a course of training at Artie McGovern's; Hagen is about due to go on another rampage such as he enjoyed in winning two previous titles abroad; Armour, while not a sensational scorer, is always up with the pace in big championships, and Mehlhorn is one of those eventually-so-why-not-now boys.

Jim Barnes already is stalking about the English courses, gathering atmosphere and bonuses. Presumably he will be down Jim's alley and a lot of handicappers like his chances of repeating his victory of several years ago.

John J. McHugh, of San Francisco is in England and will play in both the open and amateur championships.

Cuban Red Sox Are Seeking Salem Game

A card was received Monday by Joe M. Kelley, manager of the Memorial building, from Ramiro Ramirez, manager of the Cuban Red Sox, now on a baseball tour in the south, asking for a game with a local aggregation.

Ramirez states that he spent the entire winter in Havana, Cuba, which is the headquarters of the team, selecting his present aggregation, and touts them as "one of the biggest drawing cards in baseball." Games with the team are scheduled through the Syd Pollock Baseball Agency, North Tarrytown, N. Y.

TURF WILL FLY WHEN THESE SPEED KINGS MEET

The 100 meters dash will feature the track meet to be held in the Los Angeles Coliseum in June to determine Olympic tryout victors. Charley Paddock, "the fastest human" (left), will find stiff competition from Charley Borah (right) in this "race of the century."

OUTDOOR MEET ON TOMORROW

If Weather Permits The Annual "Prelims" Will Be Held Wednesday

Weather permitting, the inter-city track meet of Salem High school will be held at Reilly Field Wednesday.

Plans are being made for the event and athletes are working out today at Centennial park in preparation for it.

It was planned last week to hold the first regular practice at Reilly field last night, but the field and running track were too soft. A workout was held at Centennial park for runners, while candidates in the high jump and pole vault were practiced at the jumping pit at the home of Keith Evers, where "Mutt" Reeser and "B.B." Allen the star vaulters, have been practicing whatever weather conditions allowed them to do so.

Both vaulters have been doing excellent work, Allen clearing the 12 foot mark for the first time this season last Friday. Rib plans this year to concentrate entirely on the vault, and is not entering other events as in years past.

Two Games Tonight In Volleyball Loop

The games scheduled for tonight are Baptists vs. Masons, Dodge Brothers vs. Deming Pumps.

HOMEWORTH

Mrs. Hattie Borton is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Thomas of Alliance.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thomas Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Thomas' birthday. A large number of Homeworth people were present. A number of valuable gifts was presented Mrs. Thomas. An excellent lunch was served.

The play "Peaches" given in the hall at North Georgetown, Thursday and Friday evenings by the High school pupils was well attended each evening. The play will be given at the Fairmount grange hall next Thursday evening. The Homeworth orchestra will furnish music. P. W. Freeley was in Canton on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers and daughter, Miss Ruth Myers of Canton, were guests of relatives in this vicinity last week.

Evangelist H. L. Zachman of Canton, will hold revivals at the Homeworth Evangelical church beginning April 15 to 29 inclusive, except Monday evening. Special music will be a feature. Everybody welcome.
